READING THE BIBLE UNDER THE SKY WITH STARS

An eminent theologian, Elsa Tamez says that we read the Bible under the sky without stars. Everybody knows that there are countless stars in the sky. But if there are any dark clouds in the sky, we cannot see any stars. The stars are hidden. Therefore, even though we know that the sky is full of stars, the state of ‘abundance’, nobody gets direct experience of the stars, the state of ‘absence’. Though the stars are behind the dark clouds, there is no possibility for direct experience.

Tamez points out that this is the present situation in the case of reading the Bible. The Bible is being read within the limitation of Patriarchal structure, globalization, privatization, neo-colonialism, neo-liberalism, racism, casteism, terrorism, militarism, ecological issues and so on. This is the real state of reading the Bible under the sky without stars. It means that reading the Bible without “hope.” We know that the Bible is a book of hope but because of reading within the limitation we cannot experience the promising hope of the Bible or we cannot have the power of the Bible. Therefore, we usually read the Bible without hope. Reading the Bible without hope is meaningless. That is what we are doing now. Even though, there is a state of ‘abundance’ in the Bible, we read in the state of ‘absence’. But we should know that the ‘absence’ is a presence of what is absent. Jesus says that you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition (Mt.15:6). Tradition means reading the Bible with traditional hermeneutics. Traditional hermeneutics lacks ‘passion’ and ‘compassion’. We read the Bible without any passion and compassion to fulfill its mission. This is a meaningless reading of the Bible. Read the Bible to fulfill its' mission. We, the believers of the Bible, should read the Bible in connection with the existing issues and crisis with full of hope for the future. Though we read the Bible with the limitation of a lot of dehumanizing process or in unhopeful situation, we have to see the promise of the Bible behind it. That is our challenge now. If we read the Bible with hope, we would get the power of risen Christ who overcame all kind of evil and unhopeful situations. Be optimistic with the Bible to move ahead. Let us read the Bible with 'passion and compassion' to fulfill the mission of the Bible. ■

In Christ,

Boas Achen

Assistant Vicar

Feeding the Needy

"If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person?" 1 John 3:17

Feeding the needy is manifesting God's love through the support of the church, the sponsors and the volunteers. We have freely received good things from our Lord, so freely should we give back to Him for all that He has done for us. Serving the needy is enabling us to fulfill this call. Breakfast is being served on Fridays. Used clothes in good condition are also being distributed. Please uphold this programme in your prayers.
