BELOVED “ROYAL PRIESTS” OF IMMANUEL CATHEDRAL

Do you find any kind of fault with the salutation? Are you sure that I am in a wrong sense? No, not at all. According to one of the credible insights of the New Testament, I am absolutely right. We are not just “priests”, but the Bible strongly states, we are “Royal Priests” (I Peter 2:9). The revealed meaning in this verse is that those who believe in Christ are Royal Priests. Therefore, it is very clear that there is a Royal Priesthood in us. We are called as Royal Priests and obliged to live like Royal Priests among the people of other-faiths in the society. Therefore, the ultimate aim of our lives should be to fulfill the mission and responsibility of the Royal Priesthood. In short, all the believers in Christ are royal priests. This insight is known as “Priesthood of all believers.”

In general, what is the special right of a priest? Only the Priest has the God-given right to do the sacraments of the church. The so-called laypeople believe that they have no right to celebrate the sacraments. It is wrong. Because of the Royal Priesthood of you, you have the right to do sacraments of the church. It can be proven. As you know, we have only two sacraments, ie., Baptism and Holy Communion. Holy Communion is a very significant sacrament as per the faith of our Church. According to the prayer of the Holy Communion liturgy, “- - - the bread which ‘we’ break may be the communion of the body of the Christ, and the cup which ‘we’ bless the communion of the blood of Christ.” Here the word “we” indicates “all the believers who attend the Holy Communion Service.” In this conviction, Who is celebrating or blessing the Holy Communion? We, who are the members of the Church. Why? Only because of the royal priesthood that is given to us. Only the priest can bless the elements and celebrate the Holy Communion. We, the so-called priests and the laypeople, have been doing that together. Again I ask, what is your ultimate identity? Yes, you are a royal priest. Can you accept it? The Bible instructs you to recognize and accept your identity as Royal Priest because you believe in Christ and Christ gives you Royal Priesthood.

I am sure that you may have a question now. If all the members of the Church are Royal Priests, What is the role and responsibility of the so-called Priest, who wears Cassock? Who is he/she? The answer is very simple; he or she is only a trained person to give leadership to the Royal Priests (members) of the Church when they fulfill their mission of their Royal Priesthood as a 'believing community.' From the theological study, all the so-called priests get only training for the same. The so-called priest does not have special spiritual rights and power.

We are all called as Royal Priests and should maintain the life of a royal priest. Today, there is an argument from the part of laypeople that the Priest is not supposed to maintain an ordinary life but the laypeople are allowed. The Bible does not agree to this. We are all expected to maintain a 'Priestly Life.' We are supposed to speak, behave, respond, act and think as Royal Priests. Then only the Church can be a 'witnessing community' in the society. If all the members of the C. S. I. Immanuel Cathedral maintain a Priestly life in the society, what would be the identity of our Church? Can you imagine? I am sure that our Church would be a model of the Kingdom of God and the experience of Kingdom of God would exist in our midst.

Let us live like ROYAL PRIESTS. A priest should be on love, justice and peace of God. Let us keep all the priestly virtues among us. This would be the solution, if there are personal conflicts or issues among us. May God give us Grace to fulfill the Royal Priesthood. Let us take a resolution to be Royal Priests in this New Year. ■

In Christ,

Boas Achen

Assistant Vicar

Sunday School

"Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! For the LORD is a great God and a great King above all gods." (Psalm 95: 2,3)

We praise and thank our Lord for enabling us to celebrate His faithfulness throughout the year. On December 09, 2018, we had our anniversary and Christmas celebrations which began with prayer and felicitations. The Annual report was read by our Sunday school superintendent Mr. Benjamin Vedanayagam. Our Assistant Vicar Rev. Dr. Mervin Shinoj Boas delivered the Christmas message. The programs included children praising God with the talents given by Him and the teachers and volunteers glorifying God by singing songs. The compering done by Ms. Miriam Vargis and Mr. Juan enriched the program. The program culminated with the arrival of Santa Claus. Children were awarded prizes for regular attendance, exams and competitions held throughout the year, by our Vicar Rev. P. J. Jacob and Assistant Vicar Rev. Dr. Mervin Shinoj Boas. The Sunday school reopens on 20th January. Please encourage children to read the Bible and pray every day. We thank our Vicars, members of the Pastorate committee and Diocesan Council and members of the youth fellowship for their continual support and encouragement throughout the year. We also thank each and everyone in our church for their support through prayers and contributions during various programs of the Sunday school during the year. Please remember our children as they are preparing for their board examinations and annual examinations in school.
