DEATH: THE RESULT OF LIFE
(GOOD FRIDAY EXPERIENCE)

LIFE: THE GIFT OF DEATH
(EASTER EVENT)

What is good on Good Friday?

Is it a significant day due to happening a brutal murder which is paradoxically defined as good?

What did happen on Good Friday?

An innocent human being was mentally and physically tortured.

An immaculate human being was alienated, oppressed, exploited, and victimized.

A sinless human being was marginalized.

An ethical human being was accused.

A powerless and voiceless human being was executed.

A perfect human being was demoralized.

A righteous human being was persecuted.

A just human being was killed.

A noble human being was crucified.

Finally, on that day God had forsaken the beloved begotten one.

All these intolerable and painful injustice events happened on one Friday.

How can that Friday be called as Good Friday?

Where is and what is good on that Friday?

If your beloved one died on one Friday, Can you say that Friday is really good?

Sometimes we can and we should.

It depends upon the nature, cause, goal and result of the death.

Life is defined by death.

The cause of death explains life.

The goal of death describes life.

The result of death portrays life.

When we look at the death of Jesus, it defines the life of Jesus.

The cause, goal, and result of his death bring tremendous goodness.

Therefore, the day Jesus died became a good day.

His death is the best death in the history of the world due to its purpose.

Therefore, the day in which it happened became good day.

The death of Jesus brings indefinable merits to the entire cosmos.

Therefore, Jesus remains forever; even beyond death.

That is Easter; an experience of an everlasting life.

If I die for a good cause with a good goal, definitely my death will bring good result.

If my death brings good result to the humanity as well as to the universe

I would live forever.

It is the real Easter experience.

Good death is a result of a righteous life;

Therefore, righteous death stands for an everlasting life.

In Christ,

Boas Achen

Family Care Fellowship

"And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect harmony": Colossians 3:14

'All praises to God Almighty'

By his grace month of March for Family Care fellowship was very much blessed.

Fellowship started up with our Sambaram distribution campaign from 06/03/2019, (Ash Wednesday) in the presence and prayers of Rev PJ JACOB Achen and Rev Dr Mervin Shinoj Bovas Achen and was a very blessed venture in which we managed to supply approximately 1000 cups of sambaram everyday till 29/03/2019 in this huge hot and humid weather condition.

The Sambaram venture 2019 turned out to be a very blessed venture for plenty of people in this hot weather who are passing by Immanuel cathedral which is in the heart of the city. Family care fellowship appreciate and thank all who had been a part in this venture in all ways either by donations or by their physical presence.

On 17/03/2019 after the church service we managed to conduct an Eye Care Awareness Class by Dr Jacob.S.Mathew (Eye surgeon Jacob's Eye care Hospital, former eye surgeon at Vasan Eye Care Hospital) on causes and remedies on general eye diseases and also on general eye care. The eye care awareness class conducted by Doctor Jacob.S.Mathew was very informative and was a big eye opener for all the attendees in all age groups. We appreciate and give all our thanks to Dr Jacob for coming forward and taking the class. Coming months we are planning on conducting an eye camp of which planning is going on.

As a part of our family care fellowship in the month of March we visited four homes and also four patients in different areas as a group and shared our love and fellowship among them and by gods immense grace we as a fellowship are growing in good strength in god. †

House Construction Project

An update on the above project is given below.

The Gracious Lord has enabled us to do the following and we are ever grateful and thankful to Him.

We have received a sum of Rs.31,83,670/- as contributions from members and well-wishers of our Cathedral for the House Construction Project which is related to last year's heavy rains and flood.

The Pastorate Committee selected two people from our Diocese who lost their houses during the disaster. The beneficiaries are Babu Simon and family, members of the CSI Holy Trinity Church, U C College, Aluva and K D John and family, members of St. John's CSI Church, Kundukad.

Reconstruction works of both houses are nearing completion. They are being supervised by Rev. P V James and Rev. Johnson E George, the vicars of the respective churches. Babu Simon's house is expected to be completed at a cost of Rs.6.5 lakhs while that of K D John's at a cost of Rs.8.5 lakhs. The total for those two will be Rs.15 lakhs.

"We must show our Christian colors if we are to be true to Jesus Christ."

Two of our Cathedral Members were also given assistance. Rs.1.25 lakhs was spent for reconstructing a partially damaged house of one member while Rs. 25, 000/- was given to another member to restart his business which was lost during the disaster.

The next work which is expected to start early in April, is the construction of a new house of about 950sq.ft. in a very small plot of land for one of our members. The cost is expected to be 16 to 17 lakhs.

While we thank all members who have participated in this venture by their contributions and otherwise. Those who are yet to extend their helping hand may do so at the earliest as we might need more funds.
