Towards freedom

From our Asst. Vicar

Pentecost was the second important festival of the Jews. As the name indicates (Pentekoste), this great Jewish national festival was observed on the 50th day, or 7 weeks, from the Passover Feast, and therefore in the Old Testament it is called “the feast of weeks.” (Lev. 23:17). We celebrate the Pentecost for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on that particular day which led to the birth of Church. But today many of us think that ‘Pentecost’ is a denomination among the Christians. We cannot consider this as a denomination, but it is a festival. Moreover it provides freedom and courage to the world as a whole.

The coming of Holy Spirit on Pentecost in human life was a kind of second giving of the law; the spirit replaces the law as the guide for God’s people. It was in Paul’s expression, the law of the spirit which gives life, the life of freedom (Rom.8:2). Before Pentecost, they were sitting inside a closed room out of fear. So the Holy Spirit strengthens the believers to stand for God’s will that is freedom.

It is freedom from fear. Fear is an obstacle which deviates us from stepping in or stepping down for goodness. After the ascension of Christ, the disciples were gathered in the upper room. When they gathered in the upper room, the Holy Spirit strengthened them with God’s power. So they became the witnesses of Christ. The Holy Spirit strengthens us to face our day to day struggles. It helps us to overcome the phobias which grasp our lives.

Freedom of Universalism occurred in Pentecost. Act 2:11 says “...we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.” Luke tells us that there were God- fearing Jews from every nation under heaven, staying in Jerusalem (Act.2:5). The multitude included Jews and others, who were in Jerusalem to worship God during the festival of Pentecost. They were from modern Iran-Parthia, Media and Elam, Mesopotamia and Judea, and Asia Minor Cappadocia, Asia etc. It denotes that Luke lists a universal representation. So we realize that people from all over the world witnessed the coming of the Holy Spirit. These people returned to their native lands and proclaimed the event of Pentecost. So this became a channel for the gospel to reach from one particular place to universal realm. So the Gospel gained freedom to move across the whole world from a particular place.

It is imperative that in order to strengthen our faith in Christ, we have to proclaim the power of the Holy Spirit to the people. The Holy Spirit will help us to move from fear to Faith. We will be equipped to remind each other of God's promises and presence. This will enable us to face our fears and confront the challenges of the day with equal measures of courage and compassion.

In Christ,

Aneesh Achen
Asst. Vicar
