Set fire on earth

From our Vicar

There is a beautiful scene in my memory even from childhood. Every day early in the morning, my grandmother used to flame the fire wood to start cooking. It was the beginning of a day in our family life. While she was flaming the fire, she used to flame fire with full respect. It was the daily routine. It was the part of a culture to begin a day with God. They observed every first flame of fire as a divine one.

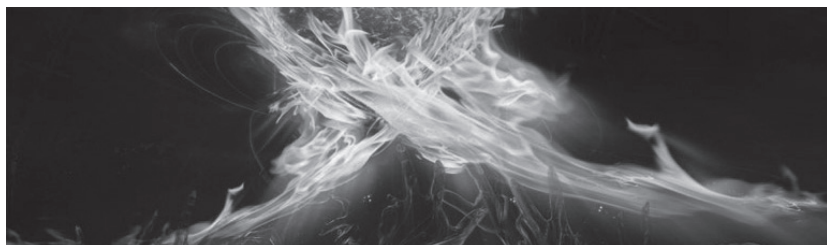

In Gospel according to Luke 12:49-53, Jesus said, "I have come to bring fire on earth."

The fire that Jesus stated here is not the destructive fire, but the constructive, life giving, fire of Holy Spirit. It is a divine one. Often, in the Bible fire is used as the symbol of God. Deuteronomy 4:24 says that 'for the Lord your God is consuming fire.' In another occasion John the Baptist said, "Jesus shall baptize you with Holy Spirit and fire." And even in the Acts of Apostle, we see that the Holy Spirit descended in the form of fire. When Jesus said that he came to bring fire upon the earth, he was speaking about his mission of sending Holy Spirit into the heart of men. It was about the divine transformation which would blaze and flash through the world.

Fire is the source and symbol of life. When Jesus said these words, it was not the destroying fire, but the life giving fire of the Holy Spirit. In general, we know that fire is the symbol of destruction. But here it is used as the symbol of life. Sun is the sustainer of all life on this earth. It sends light to the earth by its combustion. That helps the living things to exist here. By giving of Holy Spirit Jesus assures the life giving energy into the midst of death and struggles.

Fire is the source and symbol of stimulating energy. In our life we have some stimulation that leads us to changes in our attitude. When Moses encountered God on Mount Horeb in the burning bush, God called him to shepherd His people of Israel. He was transformed totally after this experience on Mount Horeb. That stimulates him as a man of enthusiasm, both for the Lord and for the people. Later it leads to the great liberation of a nation from slavery and death. When Jesus said this word, Jesus stimulated the mind of the disciples and the followers who were suffering by the over domination of the power centres. It was the destruction fire for the power centres, but it was a stimulating, awakening fire for the depressed class.

Fire is a symbol of purification. Anything that comes in contact with fire is burnt or purified. When Gold is placed in fire, it is purified and pure gold emerges. Prophet Isaiah experienced the purifying power of fire. In the temple he had the vision, that an angel was holding a burning coal and touched his mouth. This purification process enabled him to start his prophetic movement. When Jesus said this word, he means to purify the world from the evil structures. Similarly when Holy Spirit descends upon us and abides in us, he cleanses our heart from all sins.

6th August is observed as Hiroshima day. In history, it was a painful destruction on the earth by human. In the early times it was a symbol of divinity and respect. But later, gradually it turned into the role of destruction. Let us examine ourselves, are we carrying a divine fire or destructive fire.

In Christ,

Aneesh Achen

Counselling Centre

Through the abundant grace of the Lord Almighty, it has been possible to run the CSI Counselling Centre successfully. People from different Christian denominations and different faiths have been approaching the centre to find solutions to their Family Problems. It is gratifying to state that the centre has helped reunite many couples and helped families live in peace with each other. Many of them have remained in touch with the Centre for continued support and counselling.

We are also thankful to the Lord that many hospitals have been sending to the centre, people of all ages who need support during physical and psychological problems.

You are welcome to reach out to the centre for our support and prayers whenever you feel the need, especially when you are faced with problems or difficulties.

The Seniority Moments

Age cannot wither nor custom stale our infinite variety or so the Bard sang of another but I may be forgiven for borrowing.

We all desire at one stage in our lives to be older than we really are and that is in childhood. Sadly this lust for maturity doesn't last long and by the time we hit our mid fifties and we know our youth is truly behind us, we'd do anything to slow down times passage.

Senior moments are a kind of mental blips that occur to the best of us at an early age .The more adventurous ones try to prolong youth through physical convolutions, healthy dietary regimens and in general try to be Peter Pans. But gradually it may be time to face the music and embrace a new chapter in our lives

Just think of it .Remember you have gained the tremendous freedom to act and do as you like. Congratulations you have joined the senior clan of being attacked by feelings of being foolish, annoyed, embarrassed with yourself and not bothered about it anymore.Dont give up your feelings of liveliness and vitality as you grow into the senior list.

Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years. We grow old by deserting our ideals. Years may wrinkle the skin but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul. Youth is a gift of nature but age is a work of art.

Although we suspect we've begun experiencing senior moments up, rather than recognizing the warning signs and acknowledging the facts we bury our heads in the sand or worse still turn tails and run. Some try to belie it by outward shows in clothes suitable once for the younger you or hiding graying hair or starving and even resort to chin and tummy tucks but as the Bard said truth will out. No one expects someone moving into the senior moment stage to dress like a bag of potatoes. But as the bard said truth will be out.

An early sign is when you realise that Gravity is no longer a term in science or the geography text books but refers to your body. You begin to experience jet lag, yet the last time you stepped on a long distance plane was five years ago. You are on the first name basis with your pharmacist because you go to the pharmacy very often. You begin every sentence with 'nowadays' .One of the signs of the seniority age is that you have to carry in your brief case or handbag, glasses hearing aids and spare dentures

A retired school master said the first time he felt old was when he was in a queue at the local treasury to collect his pension and found himself behind a former pupil who was there for the same reason.

In youth the days are short and the years are long. In the autumn of life the years are short and the days are long.

Cicero, the Roman, wrote of the golden age, the senior stage., ‘we must fight old age, as we should an illness. We must look after our health, use moderate exercise, take just enough food or drink to recover but not to overload. Old age is respectable as long as it asserts itself, maintains its proper rights and is not enslaved to anyone.’

As Ulysses said ‘do not rust unburnished but shine in use. Look for the humour around you and laugh as its acolytes say, is an involuntary explosion of the lungs. So when you laugh you breathe, the blood runs and every atom of your being is circulating. If you don’t laugh, you’ll die.

Don’t go searching for the fountain of youth. It’s the mind that matters. Your talents, your creativity, you bring to life and the people you love. To grow old gracefully is the master work of wisdom and one of the most difficult chapters in the great art of living

Here’s how the young ones break us down

‘The phone rings The voice like that of a nightingale asks, “We’re doing a survey about the use of the Internet. May I ask some questions? First of all how old are you? “

Answer” Seventy five”.

Reply from the nightingale,” You are too old,. Thank you for your time, Goodbye!”

To ward off all unwanted comments, develop interests in life as you see it, in people,literature, music and painting or what’er it takes your fancy, for the world is so rich

,simply filled to the brim with treasures and interesting things that can take you away from the pangs of senior moments

At my super senior age, I’m wrestling with the secrets of the Japanese language; the main interest in its stylized letters, and am enjoying it. Along with this interest is my wrestling with crossword and jigsaw puzzles .My days are challenging. Michelangelo was 71 when he painted the ceiling of the Sistine chapel, Picasso 91 when he produced his drawings and paintings

The next time some insensitive youth tells you, “You are growing old and better take a back seat”, think about our philosophers and wise men who lived fruitful lives in their old age. Personally I can think of a few who beat senior moments to carve monuments for themselves. The list is unending. To live in active life beyond the age of 120 or more was nothing so great an achievement.

Mark Twain said, ‘Age is an issue of mind over matter. If you don’t pay much heed to the passing years, it doesn’t matter ‘

One of the happiest times of life for those in the seniority stage, is fellowship with similar other human beings.

Just remember that all experience of your growing seniority age is an arch where thro gleams the untraveller world whose margin moves forward.
