FOLLOWING JESUS INTO THE DESERT

The season of Lent is now with us. Lent is an opportunity to fast, pray, fight temptation and recommit ourselves to our life's mission. Lent season calls us to a desert experience, leads us into a deeper union with God.

The spirit of God leads our Lord into the desert at a significant moment in His life. It is a time of transition. Jesus is baptized in the Jordan River by John the Baptist as He is about to enter public ministry. Jesus goes in to the desert to spirituality prepare himself for his mission. Jesus prays and fasts for 40 days and 40 nights; and then the devil confronts him. The evil strives to bare him with three grate temptations, pride, presumption and lust of power. Jesus defeats him by trusting God, knowing truth and remaining steadfast. Our Lord banishes the evil one and is ministered by the Angels (Mk. 1:13)

This account of Jesus' temptation in the desert gives us much to ponder. Before beginning his ministry of teaching, preaching and healing, He was in the desert experience. He defeated the evil, and he was full of spirit, trusted in the power of his Father.

By the observation of Lenten period, the church is in a certain sense called every year to follow her master and Lord, if he wishes to preach His gospel effectively.

This first withdrawal of Jesus to place of stillness is about the beginning, of a lifelong habit. All key moments throughout his life, the son of man will leave the activities of the world and retreat is to the solitude. There in the stillness of wilderness, he will commune with his heavenly Father and draw from him the strength and fortitude. He needs to fulfill his mission. Lent is a radical call to simplicity and integrity. It is a call to hard living, self-restraint and unyielding mortification. It is a call to fortitude and steadfastness, perseverance and strength.

As Christians, all of us are called to a mission, and this mission has both an exterior and an interior quality. God intends us to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. But in order to accomplish this holy task, we need to bring everything within us in conformity with the Father's will - our words, deeds, actions, attitude, hopes and dreams. It is a time to nurture our relationship with God even as we consider the treasure of our redemption. It is a time to face our own wild beasts of sin. And it is a time to seek deliverance from our self-indulgence, unhealthy habits, lustful passions, harmful attitudes and un-Christian way of thinking. It is a time to pray and fast and do penance.

Lent is a season for renewal and rebirth, regeneration and recommitment.

So may the almighty God guide all of us throughout this lent period and help us to experience the Glory of His resurrection. ■

Rev. P. J. Jacob
