PROPHET FOR PEACE

Happy New Year!

We live in a complicated and incredible time in history. We have achieved developments in all fronts, both positively and negatively. We have all sorts of modernized equipment for our better comforts. In the same way we have equipment to destroy our peace. Placed in such a situation, Christians are called to proclaim God as the God of justice.

What is peace in the normal sense of the word? It is a shared relationship with mutual substance and equal partnership. When this does not happen, there is tension, and even protest. At this point the unaffected person asks the victim to reconcile and live in peace. This is exploitation and victimization.

There were false prophets in Israel. They proclaimed peace where there was no peace. These prophets are likened to “jackals among ruins”, (Ezek. 13:4) scavengers who profit from the people’s awful condition. They are prophets who speak what the people want to hear so that they can make a handsome living, not true prophets who suffer for speaking the truth (Jer. 32:1–5). Ezekiel 13:8–16 probably has in view the lying prophets who gave false comfort to King Zedekiah just prior to the fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC (Jer. 28). He compares them to those who whitewash a wall to mask its flaws. Ezekiel condemns these false “prophets of Israel,” and told Israel about her God and his desire to the nation.

Peace is a gift of God. The word ‘peace’ is derived from the Hebrew root ‘Shalom’, and conveys the image of wholeness, unity and harmony—something that is complete and sound. The Greek equivalent for this word is, ‘Eirene.’ In the New Testament and the present day context, ‘peace’ is something rooted in one’s relationship with God and testifies to the restoration of human beings to inner harmony and also to harmonious relationship with others. So we are called to make peace in the world.

Matthew 5:9 says, “Those who make peace will be called children of God”. John 20:19, 20 say Jesus Christ is our peace. Then Ephesians 6:15 says, “The Gospel of Christ is the Gospel of peace. Peace will spread out in prayer, in worship, in sharing and working together. Together Churches can speak out with a strong voice to promote peace, justice and care for God’s creations.

So this New Year will be a different one for us, in which we may stand as peace builders in our country. Let us work for better tomorrows. Let us pray for the nation, so that our nation may retain its harmonious life. Let us be a true prophet of God, so that peace and love of Christ spread out in the world.

Rev. Aneesh Mathew
Asst. Vicar

Sunday School

The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid? Psalm 27.

Feeding the Needy

God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them. Hebrews 6:10

By the grace of God, feeding the needy programme has completed seventeen years this month. We would like to thank one and all who helped this programme. This was possible only because of divine favour and the support of our achems, committee members, volunteers and sponsors. May our Lord bless the work of their hands abundantly.

Sponsors for the month of Dec were 6/12 Roshan Jacob George
13/12 John Mathew
20/12 Rajesh Roshan
27/12 Thomas Thomas.

May the favor of our Lord be with them.

Cathedral Choir

The long practice sessions and hard work of each choir member resulted in the successful conduct of the much awaited Christmas Carols this year too, by the abundant Grace of God. The Christmas Carol Service of our Cathedral was held on December 15, 2019 at 6.00 pm where all the three Choirs (Junior Choir, English Service Choir and Cathedral Choir) made a magnificent rendition of Christmas songs. The Cathedral Choir performed 10 songs and the Junior Choir and English Service Choir rendered two songs each. Rt.Rev.Dr. Oommen George Thirumeni (Bishop of Kollam-Kottarakkara Diocese) graced the occasion with his inspiring words from the Holy Scriptures. We are highly indebted to the efforts put in by Mr. Renji Varkey for the training sessions given to all the three sets of Choirs without which this day would not have been successful.

On 13th Dec our Cathedral Choir performed two melodious songs at the YMCA –YWCA Ecumenical carol service held at Durbar Hall ground. It was indeed a blessed evening where the whole crowd was touched deeply by the heart rending songs presented by the choir.

All praises to God Almighty.
