LENT: A TIME FOR INTROSPECTION

Lent is a time for self-examination. We need to look at ourselves very carefully. Lent is a time that offers us an opportunity to come to terms with the situations we may have to face in the rest of the year and it makes us realize the need to bring our Saviour to the forefront. Like Advent, Lent is a time to open the doors of our hearts a little wider and understand our Lord a little deeper, so that when Good Friday and eventually Easter comes, it is not just another day at church but an opportunity to receive the overflowing graces God has to offer.

The Lenten season developed as a part of the historical Christian calendar and is typically celebrated by Catholics and some mainline Protestant churches that follow a liturgical calendar. Although its format has varied throughout the centuries and throughout different cultures, the basic concept remains the same: to open our hearts to God's refining grace through prayer, confession, fasting, and almsgiving as we anticipate Holy Week. Lent traditionally lasts forty days, modelled after Christ's forty-day fast in the desert, and ends on Good Friday. Lent officially begins with a reminder of our mortality on Ash Wednesday.

Lent is the time to ask questions to ourselves. Isaiah 58:2b says "they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God." In this portion, Isaiah speaks of Israelites and their priests. They ask of me the ordinances of justice - Their priests and prophets consulted the laws and institutions of religion, as if they were really afraid of violating the divine commands. At the same time they were full of oppression, strife, and wickedness, they were very careful about violating any of the commands pertaining to the rites of religion. So God asks them "Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord?" (Isaiah 58:5). It is the statement of God. But this question, we need to ask ourselves.

As we are observing lent, let us ask few questions to ourselves. It is the time for change and repentance. "Am I really repenting? Lent is the time of "repentance and confession." The promise for you and me is that if we repent, turning to God, we will receive Life.

Let us ask another question to ourselves," Are we doing good things for the people around us?" This is the time to transform our conceptions and misconceptions. We need a humanitarian concern in our heart. That is what M M Thomas says - the concern of the church should be transcendence. The church should participate in the struggles for humanisation. Isaiah 58: 6-7 inspires us to inculcate the value of kindness in our heart.

Let us have an introspection on our day-to-day activities, our relationship with others and our relationship with the Almighty. And then, let us renew and strengthen our relationship with God.

The lent is the time to re-dedicate ourselves for the transformation of our life. So during this lent, let us ask questions to ourselves, find out the answer and submit our mind and body to correct our life. ■

Conscience – Our Guide

“And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent” (John 17:3)

The most important ingredient in man which differentiates him from other living beings is the conscience which dwells in him. Conscience is the most important faculty which God gave only to man. The Spirit of God, works mostly in our mind. The Holy Spirit dwells in us and continuously works in us trying to bring our mind completely under God's control.

Conscience is our greatest friend and also our guide and counsellor. With our knowledge, and without it also, we deal wrongly with others in words and works. Our conscience reminds us of our faults and encourages us to set right our faults and lead a prosperous life. If we ignore the words of our conscience, if we justify our works, our conscience will become our enemy and the one who judges us. Because of that, our conscience loses the peace of mind, and suffers diseases of the body and also of the mind. The medicines are of no effect in treating such disease. What is most needful for our healing is confession of our sins and prayer. That way we can be subjects to the counsel of God's Holy Spirit.

Ms. Pramila Jayaraj, MA, MS,

Counselor, CSI Counselling Center, CSI Cochin Diocese.
