Name them one by one

From our Vicar

I took this phrase from the familiar song “Count Your Blessings.” It is a hymn about gratitude — it’s a call to rise above discouragement, doubt, envy, and self-pity to reach a new appreciation for the blessings which the Lord has poured upon each of us.

In Genesis Adam gave names to all living things. Lord God brought all living things before Adam to see what he would call them. He named them one by one.

The hymn was written by Johnson Oatman Jr. in 1897. Oatman was born in 1856 in Lumberton, New Jersey, and he looked up to his father dearly. His dad was a local merchant and just happened to be the best singer in town, with a rich, powerful voice. Young Johnson could not sing as well as his father, yet he grew up wishing to make some musical contributions of his own. However, for a time he worked in the family business, but soon gave up those opportunities and began to study for the ministry. After finishing school and ministering in the Methodist Episcopal churches for a time, Johnson continued to hope that life surely held some other plans for him. At 36, he realized that he did, without question, have a musical talent after all. He could write songs for other Christians to sing. So, every year some 200 songs flowed from his pen. He eventually had written 5,000 songs and was happy that in his musical compositions he had found a way to ‘preach the Gospel.’

In our life, we are told to think about our blessings only and not the problems. But life is mixed with blessing and problems. We need to analyse the problems we had to face in our life and then count the blessings.

Why do we have to consider these problems? We need an analysis of the problems and we have to find out how God acted in our struggles. Find out how God led us through these situations. Then we have to name them one by one.

Deuteronomy 8:2 says, “And you shall remember the whole way that the Lord your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not."

Moses had assigned duty to parents to teach their children to whet the word of God upon them (ch. 6:7) by frequent repetition of the same things over and over again; and here he himself takes the same method of instructing the Israelites as his children, frequently inculcating the same precepts and cautions, with the same motives or arguments to enforce them, that what they heard so often might abide with them.

In the following verse of Deuteronomy Ch.-8, God reminds the Israelites about the struggles they faced one by one and asked them to remember how God led them.

In Isaiah 43: 18 we find another point of view. "Remember not the former things, from them to take occasion, as some do, to undervalue the present things, as if the former days were better than these; no, you may, if you will, comparatively forget them, and yet know enough by the events of your own day to convince you that the Lord is God alone; for, behold, the Lord will do a new thing, no way inferior, both for the wonder and the worth of the mercy, to the things of old." Indirectly it tells us to analyse the former things.

But in Isaiah 46:9 we read, "Remember the former things long past, For I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is no one like me." This verse tells to make some proofs of the true deity of the God of Israel, in opposition to the idols of the Gentiles. The proof that God has done wonders for the Israelites.

Naming our blessings is very difficult because after receiving the blessings from God, usually we forget it. Humans have this nature from the beginning itself. Here Johnson Oatman has tried to write down all the life problems into very packed and few words. He tries to name all the problems into a simple sentence. Can we do this as he did from his life? No need to write poems or epic, but mark something to remember our blessings rather than just leaving them.

The verses remind us that we should have a heart of thankfulness. Let us be thankful for God's forgiveness, His healing, His redemption, His loving-kindness and tender mercies, and His goodness. Let us analysis the past and Count our Blessings! Let us name them one by one.

Feeding The Needy

James 2:15-16 NIV

Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. If you say to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about their physical need, what good is it? We thank our Lord for His grace that enables feeding the needy programme, to cater to the needs of the needy. It is His grace that enables and strengthens this programme to function as His hands and feet for His glory. Sponsors for the month of October are 18/10. Susan Cheriyam.

25/10. Philip Kuruvilla

May our Lord bless them abundantly.

Youth Fellowship

The members of Youth Fellowship come together after the English service on 2nd Sundays and after Malayalam service on the 4th Sundays, every month. Our youth members come together for the Youth Prayer Cell on every 2nd Saturday at 6 p.m. at our chapel. Youth members ensure their presence in Feeding the Needy programme on every Friday at 7.30 a.m. This year CSI Cochin Diocese Youth Fellowship conference was held at CSI St.Paul's Church, Kunnamkulam from 6th Octotber to 8th October 2019. Theme for the conference was "Youth towards Love and Justice." The conference was inaugurated by the Bishop of Cochin Diocese Rt. Rev.B.N.

Fenn. 14 youth members of our church participated in the conference. Youth members distributed pens to Sunday school children on Sunday school Sunday as part of establishing fellowship with them. It was sponsored by our committee member Mr. C. Chandy. PS: Youth Prayer Cell was started in the year 2014 to inculcate the habit of prayer and worship among the young. At the prayer cell, we share our testimonies and prayer points and pray for each other. Make it a point to attend the same. Ensure your presence in all activities of Youth Fellowship and receive the blessings!!

Poem

I wonder,
Was he blind?
Blind to all the dreams
her eyes revealed...

I wonder,
Was he deaf?
Deaf to all her pleas
and painful screams...
I wonder, wonder.

I wonder,
How his lustful hands

I Wonder

could plunder
all her smiles and laughter;
how his dirty conscience
could wipe off forever
all the million colours cherished in her bower.
Only if he wasn't blind and deaf
altogether...

But wait,
At the least
if we could,

stop just wondering
but act;
to wipe the tears
and hold her tight
to bring back the sparkle,

in her eyes.
I wonder, wonder.

Chandy shared the word of God in Malayalam and English worship services. Please uphold the ministry of Sunday school in your daily prayers.

► Poem

Outpourings

As I galloped down the paths, to places far and near,
I thanked the dear Lord for the spring in my step... but never a trace of pride.

I marvelled at God's grace and told one and all,
of how He brings help to my door, when I need it most...

Thanked Him, but never a shade of pride.
When I thanked the Lord for Metro, Uber and Lulu...
In awe of His grace...never an ounce of pride.

When I thanked the Heavens for blessings untold... I had only praise in my mind!
But here I am now, with a knock on my soul,
All blessings slowly removed.
But I still thank my Lord for the blessings, He has stored, in the future for me!
